

2004 National 4-H Dairy Conference
September 26-29, 2004
Madison, WI

Youth interested in attending the conference must have participated at least three years in the 4-H dairy program, must be at least 15 but not more than 18 years old before January 1, 2004, must not have attended the national dairy conference before, are not exhibiting animals at the World Dairy Expo, and are not competing in this year's National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest.

The cost to each delegate for this year's conference is $375.00, which includes a registration fee, transportation, lodging and meals at the event. The cost of meals while in transit is the responsibility of the delegate. This year's conference includes visits to ABS Global, Hoard's Dairyman, Nasco, Dairy Shrine Museum, and the World Dairy Expo. There will be workshops about herd mating strategies, dairy foods evaluation, AI, roaming through the rumen, marketing dairy products and much more. In addition, several recreation events are planned. The opportunity exists for adults to attend the conference as chaperones. The chaperone must be willing to fully participate in the program and discipline delegates as needed. Meals, lodging and registration fees will be provided to the chaperone. Please call if you are interested in being a chaperone.

Registration deadline is Monday, July 19, 2004. Please fill out the attached registration form for each youth interested in participating by Monday, July 19, along with $375.00 for each youth (payable to Michigan State University). Space is limited for this event. Please be advised that there are no refunds once the registration has been processed. Once delegate registrations have been received, specific travel arrangements will be made. Please call 586-469-6431 with any questions.
